

Guilford County 4-H Fashion Revue Competition Information

Runway Fashion Revue-Wearable Outfit or Garment

The Guilford County 4-H Fashion Revue competition will be held in-person at County Activity Day on May 13th. Participants are not required to participate in the Fashion Revue Show on May 13th in-person.

Who may participate?

Any Guilford county youth registered in 4-H Online

Guidelines and Other Needed Information:

- Entry forms and garments are due via Google Form by May 6th, 2025. The link can be found here for the form <https://forms.gle/ykxcC55eybPbx79P6>.
- All entry forms must be accompanied with 2 full-length photos of the 4-H'er in the garment(s) that they have sewn. One photo must be facing the camera and the other one with their back to the camera. This is the only time the judge will be able to judge fit, so keep that in mind.
- The entry or entries do not have to be a full outfit, but they must be something the participant can wear and model such as a dress, skirt and a blouse, pajama pants, apron, shorts, etc. They are being judged on fit, so purses, pillows, blankets, etc. will not be accepted for this competition.
- Youth will pick up their garment(s) on May 13th unless they will be advancing to District Fashion Revue.

Garments will be judged by the following:

- Seams and seam finishing
- Gathering/darts/pleats
- Closures
- Overall appearance
- Fit

Awards:

- 1) Youth will be awarded 1st- 3rd places in the age groups of 8-13 and 14-18. All other participants will receive a participation certificate.
- 2) 1st-3rd winners and Cloverbuds will receive a ribbon.
